

Oregon

Corvallis, Northwest Band Camp at Twin Rocks

June 17-23, June 24-30. $569

<http://www.nwbandcamps.com/>

The Northwest Band Camps offer both individual and group instruction in concert band, jazz band, and small ensembles. All performance groups are instructed by experienced junior high school, high school and college music teachers and directors.

Students who have completed 5th grade (with one year of band) through students have completed 11th grade (entering their senior year).

Eugene, Summer Music Camps @ UO

MS/HS July 9-14 (Concert Band/Orchestra), July 16-21 (Marching/Leadership) and July 22-27 (Jazz Improvisation). — Resident $595, Commuter $495, Commuter (no meals) $395

<https://musiccamps.uoregon.edu/>

- Concert Band & Strings Camp – July 9-14, 2018

The Concert Band Camp is open to all woodwind, brass, and percussion students who are currently completing grades 8-12. The Strings Camp is open to all string students who are currently completing grades 8-12. Graduating seniors are welcome for both camps! Parent/guardian permission is required.

- Marching & Leadership Camp – July 16-21, 2018

The Marching & Leadership Camp is designed to bring out the leader in every student. All students will partake in full camp instruction and will sign up for one of the following specialized camps: Drum Major, Section Leader, Color Guard or Percussion all lead by Oregon Marching Band instructors, drum majors and other exceptional college educators. A performance will be held on the last day of camp that includes a field show and performances from each specialty.

- Jazz Improvisation Camp – July 22-27, 2018

The University of Oregon Jazz Improvisation Camp is open to all wind, percussion, guitar, bass (upright or electric), and piano players who are completing grades 7 -12. Graduating seniors are welcome! An audition tape/CD is required to attend this camp as well as submission of the camp application form with parental permission.

Monmouth, Mel Brown Jazz Camp @WOU

<http://melbrownjazzcamp.com/>

Aug 5-11 Resident $750 Commuter $625

The Mission of the Mel Brown Summer Jazz Workshop is to improve each participant's performance skills and increase their knowledge and appreciation for jazz. Participants perform in both large and small ensembles and attend seminars that cover various topics including music theory, history, composition, improvisation, the music business and music technology. In addition to all of the music-making, they have the chance to bond with musicians from all over the world at meals in the university's dining hall and at night in the residence halls.

Wallowa Lake, Music Camps @ Wallowa

MS/HS – Brass June 24-30 $550

MS/HS – Woodwinds July 15-21 $550

<https://musiccampsatwallowalake.com/>

Experience 7 days of intense professional instruction with members of the Oregon Symphony Orchestra and other professionals. Camp includes theory & music history, student performances and FUN in the heart of the Wallowa Mountains.

$550.00 per camper (French Horn players may attend both camps for $935; if you are interested in both Camps, you must sign up using the Brass Camps Registration form.) Check back in February for Online Registration.

Washington

Ellensburg, CWU Symphonic Band Camp

MS/HS July 9-14 (Concert Band/Orchestra), July 16-21 (Marching/Leadership) and July 22-27 (Jazz Improvisation). — Resident $595, Commuter $495, Commuter (no meals) $395

CWU Drum Major/Leadership Camp, July 2018, Jazz Camp, July 22-28, 2018

Drum Major/Leadership Camp July 2018 (TBA) – Resident $495 Commuter $300; Jazz Camp July 22-27, 2018 – Fees forthcoming

<https://www.cwu.edu/music/symphonic-band-and-drum-majorleadership-camp>

- CWU Drum Major/Leadership Camp – July 2018 (TBA)

The CWU Drum Major/Leadership Academy is for students entering grades 9-12, and is designed to prepare drum majors, band officers, and section leaders for the responsibilities and challenges they will encounter as leaders in their band programs. Classes are focused on conducting, voice commands, marching band techniques, marching pedagogy, competition procedures, rehearsal techniques, and discipline. Drum Major Academy students also participate in a Symphonic Band.

- CWU Symphonic Band Camp – July 2018 (TBA)

The CWU Symphonic Band Camp, conducted by Professor Mark Lane, is for students entering grades 9-12, and has one of the best teacher/student ratios of any band camp in the Northwest. The staff for the camp includes CWU faculty, as well as some of the premiere high school instructors and professional musicians in the state. Learn music theory and participate in master classes, music sectionals, and small ensembles. This camp offers students a chance to get a head start on the upcoming year by spending a week of intense music study at CWU!

- CWU Jazz Camp – July 22-28, 2018

As a Jazz Camp participant you will be busy making music all week long! You'll participate in improv classes or combos, big bands, apply jazz theory to your playing, and work directly with our amazing faculty on a daily basis in master classes. You will end the week by both attending and performing at Ellensburg's Jazz In The Valley event!

Bellingham, Summer Winds Music Camp

August 2018 (TBA) — Resident $670 Commuter $390

<https://cfpa.wvu.edu/summerwinds>

Presented by Western's College of Fine and Performing Arts, Summerwinds Music Camp is a chamber music day camp for young woodwind (flute, oboe, clarinet and bassoon) and brass (trumpet, horn, trombone, euphonium/tuba) players who have had at least two years of experience on their instruments. All students will benefit from coaching in a small group learning environment that focuses on the joy of playing chamber music and learning lifelong skills.

Idaho

Pocatello, ISU Marching Band Camp

HS July 2018 (TBA) — Resident $275 Commuter $185

<https://www.isu.edu/cal/summer-programs/marching-band-camp/>

The ISU Summer Marching Band Camp is an intense and fun three day camp held annually in July. Work with the ISU Music Faculty and special guest artists as you develop your music and marching skills.

Twin Falls, Music Fest

MS/HS – June 2018 (TBA) — $225, $25 per night housing

<http://communityed.csi.edu/youth/musicFest/index.asp>

Music Fest, a music day camp for students age 12 to 18, is an opportunity for students to participate in many areas of music and interact with professional faculty. Music Fest is held on the beautiful College of Southern Idaho campus in Twin Falls, Idaho. Students choose a major and spend significant time each day in classes related to their major. Available majors include band, strings, vocal, handbells, musical theater, organ, percussion, and piano. All students participate in the camp choir and have three elective periods to choose from. There are a wide variety of elective classes to choose from. On the last evening of the camp, all students perform in the Music Fest concert.

Utah

Provo, BYU Summer Festival

<https://youngmusicians.ce.byu.edu/>

HS – June 12-16 $479 (+$240 housing)

BYU Musicians' Institute is for elite musicians ages 14-18 who want to improve their musicianship through a highly focused and rewarding chamber music, masterclass, and private instruction experience with members of BYU's acclaimed School of Music faculty. This new program requires an audition prior to acceptance into the program, Space is limited, so submit your audition as soon as possible.

BYU Musicians' Institute will be held Tuesday-Saturday immediately before BYU Musicians' SummerFestival begins. The focus will be on chamber music and solo literature for winds, brass, piano and strings, as well as jazz combos and jazz improvisation.

If you attend the Institute, we strongly encourage you to also participate in the weeklong SummerFestival. Musicians' will have additional performance opportunities during SummerFestival, and those accepted into the Institute will receive a discounted price to participate in SummerFestival. We look forward to you joining us in this new era of greater music making!